Night Of Thunder's only son at stud

Best 2yo son of Night Of Thunder

His only son to win a Group race at two “Isaac Shelby is one of the smartest horses I’ve ever trained. He oozed style and class throughout his racing career. His win in the Superlative Stakes was impressive, but his performance in the Greenham was sublime. His greatest attribute was his tenacity and his will to win.”

Brian Meehan, trainer

Won Gr.2 Superlative Stakes, like his grandsire Dubawi, & City Of Troy, Native Trail, etc.

Super 2yo, Classic 3yo miler

At 2:

Won Gr.2 Superlative Stakes, Newmarket, 7f, like Dubawi, City Of Troy, Native Trail, etc. on his second start

Won Maiden Stakes, Newbury, 6½f, on racecourse debut by 3½l, kept on strongly and won going away from the field

At 3:

Won Gr.3 Greenham Stakes, Newbury, 7f, comfortably by 3l making all, from a field that included multiple Gr.1 winners Charyn & Chaldean

2nd Gr.1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains ParisLongchamp, 1m, by a short head to Marhaba Ya Sanafi, beating subsequent Gr.1 winner Good Guess & multiple Gr.1 performer Breizh Sky

2nd Gr.2 Lennox Stakes, Goodwood, 7f, by a neck to multiple Gr.1 winner Kinross

2nd Gr.2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein, ParisLongchamp, 1m, to Poker Face, beating Gr.1 winner Belbek

4th Gr.1 St James's Palace Stakes, Royal Ascot, 1m, to Paddington

OR 115

Won Gr.3 Greenham Stakes on 3yo debut

“Isaac Shelby was even better than his sire at two, and a proper Guineas horse too. He’s great-looking, very athletic and has a wonderful temperament. We’ll be strongly supporting him.”

Julian Dollar, Newsells Park Stud’s General Manager

By a record-breaking first-crop sire and son of Champion sire Dubawi

Out of a half-sister to Ramazutti, a US Gr.2 winner on the turf

“Isaac Shelby was a hugely talented horse who so nearly got Wathnan off to a dream Gr.1 start when second in the French Guineas – the very first runner in the Wathnan silks. He’s a fine horse by a very special young stallion and we’ll be very keen to see his offspring when they come to market.”

Richard Brown, Wathnan’s Racing Manager
